2. Declaration of Interests

The Clerk advised that Charles Cardiff had made a declaration of interest as he knew Mike Rushworth, and would, therefore, not attend the interview meeting.

3. Interview of Prospective New Member

The CV for Mike Rushworth was received and considered. The Principal outlined Mike's background and highlighted a number of relevant points appropriate to Corporation membership.

(Mike Rushworth joined the meeting)

The Principal gave a brief overview of the role of the Corporation.

Members discussed with Mike his application to join the Corporation and questioned him about his current experiences and their relevance to the role of a Corporation member. In response to a number of questions, Mike advised that he had a particular interest in education, recognised the importance of having a well-trained skills base for future potential staff, and saw membership as part of his own personal development. He also stressed that his employer fully supported his application to join the Corporation.

(Mike Rushworth withdrew from the meeting)

Members considered Mike Rushworth as a prospective Member of the Corporation.

It was resolved to recommend that Mike Rushworth be appointed as a Business Member, for a four-year term of appointment ending on 31 August 2010.
