

BASINGSTOKE COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION

Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct for the Corporation of Basingstoke College of Technology has been adopted to show the commitment of Members to operate in as open a way as is possible whilst maintaining the highest standards of conduct for such a body. The provisions of the Code apply equally to each and every Member of the Corporation; this includes when acting as members of a committee or working group established by the Corporation.

The Corporation acknowledges and supports The Seven Principles of Public Life as identified by the Committee on Standards in Public Life (the Nolan (then subsequently Neill) Committee):

- Selflessness
- Integrity
- Objectivity
- Accountability
- Openness
- Honesty
- Leadership

Corporation Members do not receive any payment or other benefit for carrying out their voluntary roles, other than being eligible to receive the reimbursement of any costs incurred in traveling to and from meetings and training/development events.

The provisions of the Code are reviewed annually by the Clerk to the Corporation, in conjunction with the Chairman and Vice-Chairman, to ensure its continuing relevance. Any proposed changes are subsequently presented to the Corporation for consideration and adoption.

Code of Conduct
