-------------------------	--	---------------------------

As part of your visit to the College we store and use your personal details and information about your visit for the purposes of managing and operating the College.

We use CCTV at our buildings for the purposes of crime prevention, security and health and safety and, accordingly, will capture imagery of visitors to the College.

The legal basis on which we collect and use your personal information

Except in the circumstances highlighted below, we process this information on the basis of our legitimate interests:

- we have a legitimate interest in wishing to interact with you to manage and operate effectively our College and to ensure that the College is safe and secure for all persons visiting; and
- to be able to do so, we need to understand details of who is in the building and to be able to communicate with them.

Where we are required by law to hold certain records, then we collect and hold those records to comply with that legal obligation.

How long we keep your personal information

1 year for your name as kept in the visitor log. CCTV is kept for 48 hours before being overwritten.

How we share your personal information

We may share the personal information that you give us with the following organisations (or types of organisation) for the following purposes.

Organisation / type of organisation:

- The Police

Purpose:

- Upon production of a valid DP2 crime investigation request form, your personal details may be passed to the Police to aid their investigation.

How we transfer your personal information outside Europe

We do not store or transfer your personal data outside of Europe. If it becomes unavoidable and data has to be stored outside of the EEA, it shall only occur when appropriate measures are in place to ensure the safety of your data, such as the US Privacy Shield scheme, that are of equivalence to the current UK data protection legislation. We have a data sharing agreement that we use when further protection is required.

Automated decisions we take about you

We do not make automated decisions using this information.

One of our suppliers to the College

We store and use your information for the purposes of managing our suppliers in respect of the supply of goods and services that our College may need.

The information we collect about you and why we collect it

In order to engage and manage our suppliers, where you are a supplier (or where if it is a company, you are its representative) we collect and store your contact information and, where appropriate, your bank account details.

You may also be asked to provide details of your occupation and your CV.

In addition, where you visit a building we will collect and process the information set out in the “visitor to our College” section above.

The legal basis on which we collect and use your personal information

Except in the circumstances highlighted below, we process this information on the basis of our legitimate interests:

- we have a legitimate interest in engaging and managing our suppliers; and
- to be able to do so, we need to hold details of who those suppliers are.

Where we are required by law to hold certain records for health and safety purposes, then we hold those records to comply with that statutory obligation.

Where we hold your bank account details, we do so on the basis that it is necessary for us to perform our contract with you.

How long we keep your personal information

Visitor information will be held as set out in the “visitor to our College” section above. Contract information will be held for 3 years after the termination of the contract.

How we share your personal information

We may share the personal information that you give us with the following organisations (or types of organisation) for the following purposes.

Organisation / type of organisation:

- The Police

Purpose:

- Upon production of a valid DP2 crime investigation request form, your personal details may be passed to the Police to aid their investigation.

How we transfer your personal information outside Europe

We do not store or transfer your personal data outside of Europe. If it becomes unavoidable and data has to be stored outside of the EEA, it shall only occur when appropriate measures are in place to ensure the safety of your data, such as the US Privacy Shield scheme, that are of equivalence to the current UK data protection legislation. We have a data sharing agreement that we use when further protection is required.

Automated decisions we take about you

We do not make automated decisions using this personal data.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have a number of rights over your personal information, which are:

- the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) if you are unhappy about the way your personal data is being used – please refer to the ICO’s website for further information about this (<https://ico.org.uk/>);
- the right to ask us what personal information about you we are holding and to have access to a copy of your personal information;
- the right to ask us to correct any errors in your personal information;

- the right, in certain circumstances such as where our use of your personal information is based on your consent and we have no other legal basis to use your personal information, to ask us to delete your personal information;
- the right, in certain circumstances such as where we no longer need your personal information, to request that we restrict the use that we are making of your personal information;
- the right, in certain circumstances, to ask us to review and explain our legitimate interests to you; and
- the right, where our use of your personal information is carried out for the purposes of an agreement with us and is carried out by automated means, to ask us to provide you with a copy of your personal information in a structured, commonly-used, machine-readable format.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and will update it from time to time to make sure it remains up-to-date and accurate.
