Preparing to Work in Adult Social Care

Course Overview

- ◆ Our free and flexible distance learning courses are a great way to build your CV and demonstrate your commitment to continued professional development. Previous qualifications or knowledge of the subject are not required.
- ◆ All of our distance learning courses are learner-led and you do not need to be in employment to study.
- ◆ You will study via an online portfolio using a range of supplied resources. An individual tutor will be allocated to you, and they will support you throughout your learning journey.
- ◆ This course can be started at any time and learning can be undertaken at your own pace following submission deadlines.
- ◆ Throughout the course you will learn about preparing to work in adult social care, in order to ensure the needs of vulnerable people continue to be met.
- ◆ As you learn, you'll gain an in-depth understanding for the responsibilities of adult social care workers, the diverse needs of the people using the services, and other important factors such as abuse and safeguarding.
- ◆ At the end of the course you will achieve a nationally recognised Level 2 Preparing to Work in Adult Social Care qualification. This is a government funded course at no cost to you.

Eligibility

- ◆ To be eligible for this course you must be over 19 years of age and have been a resident of the UK or Europe for more than three years. If you do not hold a UK passport you must be able to provide evidence of a visa and an alternative passport.
- ◆ If you are between the age of 19 to 24, you must already hold a level 2 qualification or equivalent.
- ◆ As part of the enrolment, you will be asked about your employment status. If you are employed, pre-enrolment checks on your annual gross income will be made and you will be asked to provide two wage slips from the last three months; in order to complete this distance learning course at no charge. If you are claiming benefits, you will be asked to provide proof of receipt.

Duration

- ◆ You will study the course over a period of six months, with regular dates of submission for each of the modules associated with the course.

How is it delivered?

- ◆ You will be required to read the learning materials and answer the questions related to the topic, reflecting on work and personal experience in your answers. We always recommend that you try and spend four to five hours a week working on your course in order to achieve deadlines.

Learning Methods

- ◆ Studying via distance learning means that you can complete this course using workbooks and a BCoT online portfolio.
- ◆ When studying online, you will be given a login to access your portfolio and submit your answers based on the information in the workbooks.
- ◆ Alternatively, there are options to study fully online through the portfolio platform or via paper based learning for all reading and assessments.
